

When To Go To The Emergency Room

At times, you may wonder if you should go to the medical clinic or seek care in the emergency room. If you're experiencing any of the following signs or symptoms, we recommend you seek immediate care in our emergency services department.

- Broken bone
- Car accident
- Chest pain (severe)
- Concussion or loss of consciousness
- Dehydration requiring IV fluids
- Domestic abuse
- Fainting
- Gunshot wound
- Head injury
- Heart attack/suspected heart attack
- Heart palpitations – fast, slow, irregular
- Life-threatening injury
- Mental illness emergency/suicidal
- Sexual assault
- Stroke symptoms
- Spinal injury/trauma
- Stab wound
- Trauma

www.vbch.org | 319-293-3171- Main Hospital | Emergency Call: 911

304 Franklin St. | Keosauqua, IA 52565